We decided to go out for picnic at the Jallo Park last Friday. The rainy season had washed the trees and carpeted the ground with green grass. We took with us some fruit, sweets and utensils. We reached there and selected a beautiful spot for camping. A sheet was spread out and we put all our luggage there. The park was clean and flowers were glowing everywhere. The waves were jumping and dancing in the lake. Everyone was happy and cheerful. We ran around like deer and inhaled fresh air. We then collected dry wood and helped our female members to cook food. We played Football, Chess, Cards, Luddo, etc. After two hours, we felt hungry. Amid the radio-tape and music play, we ate a hearty meal. After meals, we all once again set out for enjoyment here and there. The nature was at its best and we enjoyed a lot.

In the afternoon, we had tea with sizzling fritter pakoras. The shades of night were falling and we returned home happily. This was really the happiest day of my life.
